RiskVision Server-Side Connector

The Server-side connector is used for executing the sub-control checks against the data stored in the RiskVision database. Install the RiskVision Server-side connector on the same host as the RiskVision Server. The Server-side connector supports RiskVision system, version 5.0 and above.