

Set Time-Out Values for Report Execution

A time-out value is the maximum number of seconds that a report can continue to execute before it is stopped. A time-out value avoids long running queries that return large amounts of data and makes users wait until the grid is completely loaded. You can set time-out values for RiskVision reports and Jaspersoft reports.